

1. This section intends to invite information and tips on violations / manipulations that may adversely affect the market quality and integrity.
2. NSE treats all tips and information received under this section as confidential and does not disclose such information to anyone, unless required by statute, regulation, or court of law.
3. Any information concerning grievances against Trading Members (Broker) / Companies listed on the Exchange may be registered under the section 'Domestic Investors/Register an e-complaint' on the NSE website. Any investor complaint of specific nature given under this section may not receive attention of Investor Services Cell'.